

Anzac War Horses (Stage 5)

Curriculum Outcomes and Content Links

New NSW Curriculum (for implementation by 2027)

STAGE 5
DEPTH STUDY (core) – Australia: Making a Nation – from Federation to WWI (1889 – c. 1919)
OUTCOMES	CONTENT
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ analyses the key features and structures of past societies, historical periods and events HI5-SPE-01▪ accounts for different contexts and perspectives of the past HI5-CPP-01▪ explains how significant ideas and events have shaped the past HI5-IEP-01▪ integrates evidence from sources to develop historical accounts, explanations and arguments about the past HI5-SOU-01▪ assesses the value and limitations of sources as part of a historical inquiry HI5-INQ-01▪ communicates historical arguments using historical terms and concepts for a range of purposes, audiences and contexts HI5-COM-01	Working with historical concepts and skills <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Engage in historical inquiry, integrating information from a range of sources as evidence where appropriate▪ Create written texts to analyse historical concepts related to Federation and the First World War (WWI) Background and origins of Australia: making a nation – from Federation to WWI <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Reasons for Australia's involvement in WWI Significant groups, individuals, ideas, beliefs, practices and events in Australia: making a nation – from Federation to WWI <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The Australian response to WWI, including the Gallipoli Campaign, as a catalyst for the development of a national identity▪ Battles in which Australians fought in WWI (workshop touches on Gallipoli, the Battle of Beersheba, the Battle of Lone Pine) Impact and legacies of Australia: making a nation – from Federation to WWI <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Nature, commemoration and perspectives of the Anzac legend